

THE ATLANTIS PROGRAM

Atlantis Program Joint Curriculum Agreement

for

Students whose home schools are Marshall University, the University of Debrecen Centre of Arts, Humanities and Sciences and the Warsaw School of Social Psychology

This agreement articulates the bachelor's degree requirements in psychology for students within the Atlantis exchange program through Marshall University (MU), the University of Debrecen, Centre of Arts, Humanities and Sciences (UD CAHS), and the Warsaw School of Social Psychology (WSSP) in order to allow the awarding of double/dual BA degrees in psychology.

This agreement is based upon review of the unique requirements for the bachelor's degrees at the University of Debrecen, Centre of Arts, Humanities and Sciences and at Marshall University, as well as upon the applicable course offerings at the Warsaw School of Social Psychology.

The conditions articulated below apply only to the three universities listed above, and only to psychology majors within the Atlantis Program. One (1) credit earned at MU is equivalent to two (2) Hungarian Units (HU) or two (2) ECTS. One (1) HU or one (1) ECTS equals one-half (.5) semester credit hours. One (1) HU = one (1) ECTS.

I. In order for students whose home schools are the University of Debrecen, Centre of Arts, Humanities and Sciences and the Warsaw School of Social Psychology to earn the B.A. in psychology at Marshall University, they will meet the Marshall University requirements for the BA in psychology, with the following provisos:

- UD students must earn a BA in psychology from UD CAHS.
- WSSP students must earn at least 33 semester credit hours (or equivalent in HU and/or ECTS) in psychology at any of the partner institutions.
- Students must complete the Atlantis exchange program as detailed in the General Agreement and in the Student Exchange Agreement.
