CALL for APPLICATIONS

Transatlantic dual/double undergraduate degree program in Psychology

In 2006 the consortium consisting of the Marshall University the University of Debrecen and the Warsaw School of Social Psychology was among the seven projects that were funded by the Atlantis program.

Psychology students enrolled in the BA program are invited to apply for the Atlantis Student Mobility Grant to spend one academic year (10 months) in the US and one academic semester (5 months) in Poland. The costs of study are covered for the US study period, but not for the academic semester to be spent in Poland. However, partial coverage of the costs is possible via the Erasmus Student Mobility Grant.

The applications must contain the following:

1. Name
2. Passport photo
3. List of completed courses with grades
4. List of courses you are presently enrolled
5. Proof of English knowledge
6. Statement of goals (approximately 1 page about your goals relative to the field of psychology, and relative to 1,5 years of study abroad)

Applications are to be returned to Dr. István Hidegkuti (office 106/3), or to office 117 till May 23 (Friday).
